GUEST SPEAKER:

BARBARA A. WEINER

Barbara A. Weiner has practiced law for more than 30 years. She represents more than 100 community agencies and critical access hospitals. She also represents many individual healthcare providers including physicians, psychologists, and other behavioral health providers. Barbara has written two books on mental health law. These programs are designed to give you practical advice on the legal issues that arise in providing behavioral health services.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

AFTER ATTENDING THIS INTERMEDIATE-LEVEL PROGRAM, PARTICIPANTS SHOULD BE ABLE TO:

1. Identify possible ethical and legal pitfalls which arise while providing behavioral health services.
2. Discuss strategies to effectively manage risk and avoid malpractice in a broad range of areas, including confidentiality, dual relationships, duty to warn and conflict of interest.
3. Identify supervisory obligations, and implement ways to manage risk when supervising various level of trainees.
4. Identify reporting obligations for child abuse.
5. Discuss the rights of adolescents and how to avoid being in the middle of child custody disputes.
